Can I count the books I read on my computer, e-reader, tablet, or phone?
YES! In fact, you can check out eBooks with your Decatur Public Library Card!

Can I count audiobooks?
Of course! We have a wide selection of audiobooks you can check-out and download.

Does it count when I read to someone else?
Absolutely!

Can I log my time even if I don't finish the entire book?
Yes! Just record the days that you read. You can read 10 pages a day or 100! Just track the days you read!

When do I track my days?
Track your days reading from May 30th - August 12th!

*Teen Summer
Reading Challenge
2023*

Find Your Voice!

Participating:

- This reading challenge is for teens (ages 13-18).
- Log the number of days you read from May 30th to August 12th.
- If you already created a Beanstack account, you can sign in with the same email, and just enroll in the Teen Summer Reading Challenge 2023

1 Read!

Read any books you want to read! Easy, right?

2 Keep track your reading!

Record the days you read on Beanstack or in this log!

3 Place your tickets or turn in your log!

Place tickets in the prize drawings on Beanstack or bring your log in for recording & we'll place your tickets in the prize drawing.

Reading Log:

1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	5 days
1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	10 days
1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	15 days
1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	20 days
1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	1 day	25 days

- If NOT using Beanstack bring your reading log to the library, so we can log your days and get your drawing tickets. Pick-up a new log after 25 days, if you want!
- Read or listen to books! Whether a little or a lot, include reading every day and keep track on Beanstack or in your reading log.
- You'll earn tickets every 5th day of recorded reading through 50 days.
- The last chance to record your days on Beanstack or turn in your log is August 12th.
